

20-cv-1294-RS
Tradeshift v. BuyerQuest

ORDER

Having considered the positions of the parties and good cause appearing, the Court hereby ORDERS the following modifications to its Case Scheduling Order:

Additional expert discovery shall be permitted only on the topic of damages, to allow for changes in damages based on the amended pleadings.

Each party may file one additional summary judgment motion, limited to the new material in the pleadings. The parties are encouraged to stipulate to a consolidated briefing schedule to combine some of the papers.

The additional fact discovery related to subjects newly alleged in the parties amended pleadings shall be limited as follows:

- Each party may propound no more than 20 additional Document Requests;
- Each party may propound no more than seven (7) additional Interrogatories;
- Each party may propound no more than 10 additional substantive Requests for Admission;
- Each party may seek deposition testimony (supplemental or new) of not more than three (3) witnesses (individual or corporate designee); and

Either party can petition the court for additional discovery, which shall only be granted upon a showing of good cause.

Furthermore, the deadlines for additional discovery shall be modified as follows:

Event	Proposed Deadline
Additional Written Fact Discovery Cutoff	March 11, 2022
Close of Additional Fact Discovery	April 13, 2022
Case Management Conference	April 14, 2022 at 10:00 am
Deadline to File Motion for Summary Judgment on new claims and affirmative defenses	April 29, 2022
Supplemental Opening Expert Reports on damages	May 6, 2022
Supplemental Rebuttal	May 20, 2022

1	Expert Reports
2	Supplemental Expert	June 14, 2022
3	Discovery Cutoff
4	Pretrial Conference	July 27, 2022 at 10:00 am
5	Trial	August 8, 2022

6 IT IS SO ORDERED.

7
8
9 Dated: 11/22/2021

RICHARD SEEBORG
United States District Judge